The outrage committed at the Sandwich Islands in July, 1839, by Capt. Laplace, of the French frigate l'Artemise, is doubtless known and remembered throughout the Christian world. On his arrival at Honolulu, July 9, he issued a manifesto, in which he declared that to persecute the Catholic religion, to tarnish it with the name of idolatry, and to expel, under this absurd pretext, the French from this the [Sandwich Islands] Archipelago, was to offer an insult to France and to its sovereign. The same day, he addressed a note to the American Consul, in which he offered protection on board his frigate, during the threatened hostilities, to all American citizens, except the individuals who, although born, it is said, in the United States, make a part of the Protestant clergy of the chief of this Archipelago, direct his counsels, influence his conduct, and are the true authors of the insults given by him to France. For me, he added, they compose a part of the native population, and must undergo the unhappy consequences of a war which they shall have brought on this country. This certainly means, that the American missionaries at the Sandwich Islands, or at least the clerical members of...
