New Generation Publishing, United States, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 202 x 124 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Bathpool Park near Kidsgrove. Nice, but you wouldn t want to be there on a winter s night - and you certainly wouldn t want to be fifty-six feet underneath it in a disused mineshaft, surrounded by icy blackness, with a wire noose round your neck. Cold within, cold without! You could catch your death. And death was no stranger to the Black Panther, who kept a young heiress hostage there under Bathpool Park, hoping for a ransom - until his time and hers ran out. In this fast-paced reconstruction of the Panther s life on the run, his shotgun raids and his feral instinct for survival, Robert Hurst takes us into the mind of one of Britain s most chilling killers. It s not to be missed! Robert Hurst was born in Portsmouth in the UK. His varied career has been in the manufacturing industry and twenty years as a salesman. He is married with two sons and five proud granddaughters. The idea for this book came from an interest in crime detection and a distant memory of the Black Panther.
