Excerpt: . CONCLUSION. Effect of the loss of Kara -- Could Kars have been relieved ? -- Conduct of Omer Pasha -- Mouravieff s opinion of it -- Selim Pasha -- General Williams. Here, then, we arrive, after hurried and discursive steps, at the end of this campaign in Anatolia. While I express my unfeigned sense of the defects of a narrative hastily compiled from rough and very brief notes, I would also state that, except I had been urged from quarters entitled to my respect, to lay these facts and comments before the public, it is more than probable they would never have been published. But on my arrival in England I could not fail to perceive the intense interest and impatience with which authentic and explanatory intelligence of the sad fate of the beleaguered city was desired. It would have been far more...
