

Iraq a Complicated State: Iraqs Freedom War

By Karim Al-Zubaidi

Authorhouse. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 148 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. This book is a personal history of Iraq, told from the point of view of a family man living there during Saddam Husseins reign and its aftermath. It examines all the factors leading to the current situation and challenges the misunderstandings currently fuelling the media: for example, a Sunni belonging to the Baath Party is expected to be an extremist Saddam loyalist. He knew friends among Saddams government ministers, who suffered under Saddam and regularly plotted to overthrow him. It contain 1. A brief history of the city of Baghdad, which during its golden age was a great centre of culture and learning. It was a setting for the One Thousand and One Arabian Nights, in which Queen Scheherazade called it the City of Peace. 2. A picture of Baghdad in the year 2000. At first glance, it is a new golden age, but there is much suffering here. An overview of my family life and of the racial and religious harmony in which we live, and of the day-to-day effects of the 13th years US trade embargo. In 2003, when war with the U. S. and...
