Outskirts Press, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The author grew up in Arkansas. He spent his first nine years living beside a dirt road in Waldron; the next eight years at an orphanage in Monticello. During the Vietnam War years, he completed a four year stint in the US Navy. Part of his tour was the Naval Communications Station on Guam, MI, a small island in the south Pacific, a US territory. The remainder of his tour was in California and Texas. The author s first real job came when a man in Arkansas, instead of hiring him, handed him a business card and challenged him to drive 300 miles to Dallas, Texas. There, he was hired on the spot by a man who later would ask him to move to Oklahoma, where he has lived since the fall of 1968. When the author graduated from Tulsa University a member of the EE National Honor Society, Etta Kappa Nu in 1977, it appeared that he had done very well, and he had. But, his time in college didn t begin with a bang. His counselor explained that he would not need to take the college entrance exam; that he was over twenty-five years old. But, you will need to take an English test, she explained. Afterward, when the author failed the English test, she could have said, Well, you don t appear to be University of Tulsa material But she didn t. Instead, she picked up a flyer lying on her desk. Why don t you go ahead and enroll and take this writing class. Sometime later, the instructor gave the class an assignment. Write me a half-page, single-spaced article about something original, he...
