U55 2010eb online OCLC Number: (OCOLOC)698759604 Subject: Pacific settlement of international disputes. Excerpt: . . . 11 Accord, has to be Maronite, a Christian, of the sense of historical responsibility. I am feeling that they're moving forward. They are aware of the tremendous consequences that they will have to suffer if there is no agreement before the 25th of November and, for that reason, all parties are working in order to make some compromise, in order to get a candidate that can have the support of all political parties. I think as the international community, we have only one responsibility at this stage and that's to give them a sense of freedom to work among themselves and try to get an agreement among them-selves, not to try to identify one part and one other. I think our message should be encouragement, a sense of responsibility, and, of course, support. And I hope that things that have been developed are going to the right direction and finally we can get a president of Lebanon that will get the consensus of all par-ties, including, of course, the main party, the majority now as of the 14th of March. That means the political parties that are now in the majority in the last elections. Also, I hope that all together, they can get this candidate to be the man of consensus and then will follow for the stability and the better security of liberty. Ms. S. Did you have any discussions with the ability to LAUGHTER have the U. N. investigate the Hariri assassination Min. M. Well, we had a discussion, of course, with...
