Dr. W. H. Ruffner, who had previously been State Superintendent of Public Instruction, and who during his occupancy of that office had frequently and urgently in his reports to the Legislature advocated the establishment of such a school, was asked by the Board of Trustees to become the head of the School and take upon himself the burden and responsibility of its organization. There being in Virginia at that time few persons familiar with the organization and methods of Normal Schools, Dr. Ruffner was authorized to seek in the North three persons suited for the position of instructors, and his nominees were at once elected by the Board. To this number were added two ladies who were from the South, and who had experience in teaching in our best public school systems. The course of instruction adopted embraced elementary courses in English, Arithmetic,...
