Flaherty s True Green Plant Nursery has been serving the City of Blarney for 100 years since Pader Flaherty arrived in town and built a greenhouse to grow plants which were popular in his native Ireland. Through the years, operations expanded and, ten years ago, Pader s grandson Patrick became majority owner of a business that is still family-run. Today, Flaherty s is a major producer of shamrocks, supplying the entire state with the plant, especially for the wearin of the green. Although rumors persist that family members have been at odds with each other for years, the family has maintained an outward calm, denying all rumors of a rift. Last night, family, the nursery staff, and the nursery s best customer gathered at the Blarney Inn to celebrate the nursery s 100th anniversary of operation. Patrick Flaherty was the center of attention as the nursery s milestone was toasted. He was supposed to spend the night at the Inn with members of his family but, this morning, his body was found in the pond at the rear of the nursery. Tonight was to have been another party - this one celebrating St. Patrick s Day, with Patrick in attendance as the honored guest. Instead, it will be Patrick s wake. Who knows what will happen when you and the others gather to remember the life...
