Trafford Publishing, United States, 2014. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Destitute, desperate, dysfunctional pretty well sum up Brenna Renee Hamilton s existence! With a drug-abusing mother and no idea of who her father is, life goes from bad to worse. Taking responsibility for the other kids that keep coming as a result of her mother s continuing poor choices, Brenna s only hope of escaping and helping her siblings to kick free is through making good grades. Struggling to earn a degree in geology as she works jobs and the oversight at home, she gets into a legal jam. In a timely manner, she finds Christ as her Savior! Trying to take a Creationist stance in the classroom doesn t help her with professors, where her grades barely stay respectable! Even with the Lord, her dreams seem to shatter as she reaches Tulsa, Oklahoma, to apply for a job with a prestigious geological firm. Disastrous! Even as she attempts to flee, the dream of making a home for her siblings sustains her. Can it be true what Candy Milton, the pastor s wife who led her to Christ, assured her? Can God really take the barren desert of her life and make it bloom? Find out. . . A stand-alone novel, Brenna will captivate to the end! Follow her struggles through harsh realities! As she seeks professional status, she also embarks upon a personal quest: to fill in the blanks of her life never supplied by her single mother! And to help her siblings on their personal odysseys!.
