Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Jeff Remla is one of those people who did all the right things. He completed his college degree and proudly served his country for four years in the military. Following his military commitment, Jeff sought a civilian position in a difficult economic period. His simple goal: save some money and pursue graduate studies. A chance happening led Jeff to the CIA. With limited job options available, Jeff signed on with the CIA; at least they were hiring! Trained in traditional intelligence espionage techniques, Jeff often used his common sense savvy to successfully complete difficult assignments. His early career mission successes led to a fast track promotion opportunity. His talents were noticed by his senior superiors, who selected him to become part of an elite group of agents, destined to become the 21st century CIA prototype. The changing risk scenarios against the United States and the western developed countries required proactive leadership to manage these threats rather than react to these events. Jeff excelled at his accidentally chosen profession. He was loyal and sacrificed for the agency and his country to complete difficult mission demands. This continued sacrifice cost him the love of his life and his marriage. He persevered in the face of this personal adversity, maintaining his love of country. His diligence and promise placed him on a path for a top level position at Langley, the culmination to his entire career. Unfortunate circumstances and events beyond his control appeared at the eleventh hour and denied Jeff a regional Director s position at Langley, a job he had prepared for his entire career. Stunned beyond belief, Jeff became angry and disheartened, but fell back upon duty to...
