And we marvel at the noble independence of the high-minded Nicodemus, who rose so far above the servility of his age, and the tyranny of his sect, as to interpose for poor suffering common honesty and common sense, in this connection. Nicodemus saith unto them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them, ) [that is, one of the Pharisees, ] Doth our law judge any man before it hear him, and know what he doeth? They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of Galilee? Search and look; for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet. Fortunately for the world, there have always been here and there individuals, who have stood out as exceptions in the dominant ones of their sect and their time,...
