When foul corruption and degrading vice Survey the quiet joys of Paradise, Unhallowed purpose prompts the foul fiend s hate To mar the pleasures of its tranquil state; Wakes into life ambition s latent fires; With demon s art a demon s hope inspires. Know ye there is in Eden s peaceful bower A hidden mystery - a secret power? Seek, and be gods, the wily demon cries: Man trusts the tempter s voice, and eats - and dies! Thus social joys oft move unworthy minds To break the link that life s best purpose binds; In wanton acts corruption shows its zeal, And hates the virtues that it cannot feel.
